GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS YATES TO FAYETTEVILLE TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed James L. Yates of Fayetteville to the Fayetteville Technical Community College Board of Trustees.

Yates has served on the board since 1996. He works as a land developer and is a former member of the Home Builders Association. Yates received his bachelor's degree from Northwestern University of Chicago.

The duties of the board of trustees are: to elect a president to the institution; to employ other personnel to the community college; to purchase land that is necessary for the operation of the college; to apply the standards for admission and graduation of the students of the institution; to receive and accept donations given to the community college; and to provide all or part of the instructional services for the institution. The board consists of 12 members who serve four-year terms. The governor appoints five members.
